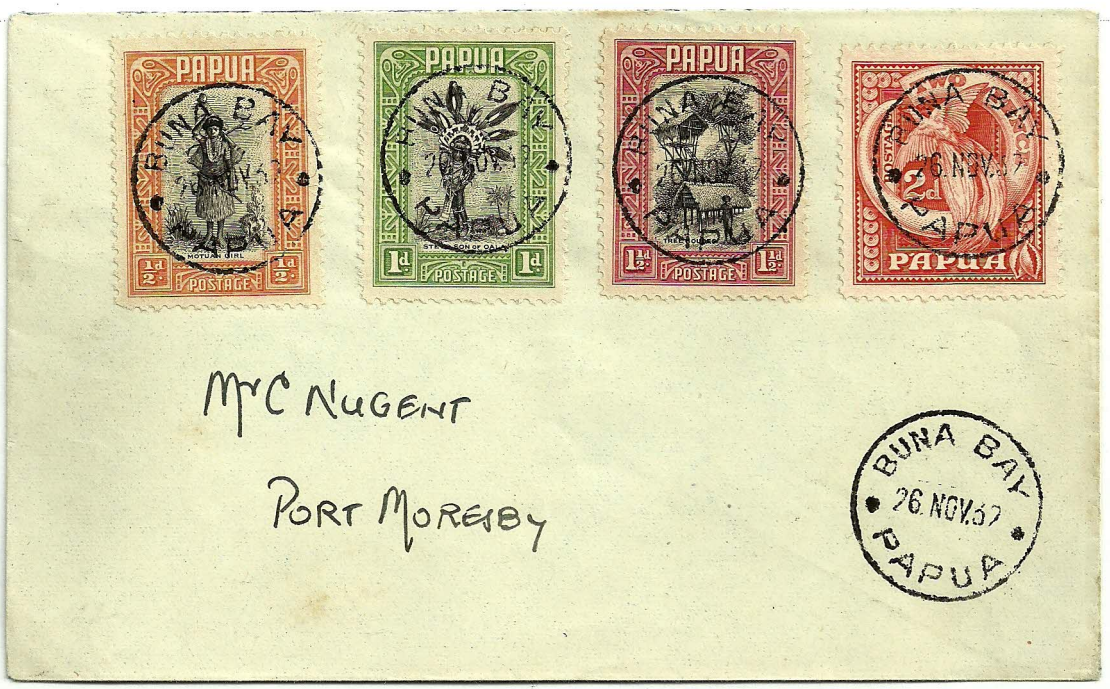
LOCAL COVERS

An Overview of Papuans Appreciating the New Series

Local covers depicting the Papuan indigenous culture: Papuans in traditional clothes, habitations with local people in ceremony dress, tree houses, masked dancer, shooting fish, Lakatoi, and Bird of Paradise.



A local cover from Buna Bay, Papua, dated November 26, 1932, destination Port Moresby, Papua, affixed with the first four stamps in the new pictorial series.

A local First Day of Issue Cover dated November 14, 1932 from Samarai, Papua, affixed with the next four stamps (3d to 6d) in the new pictorial series, destination Port Moresby to the north.