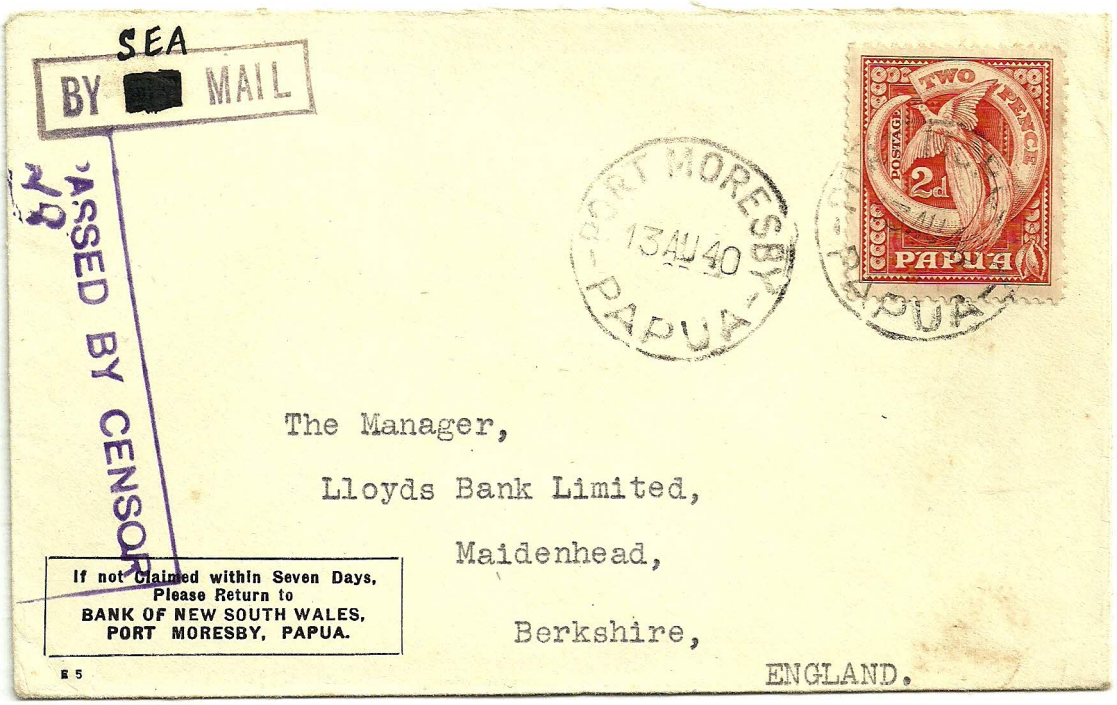
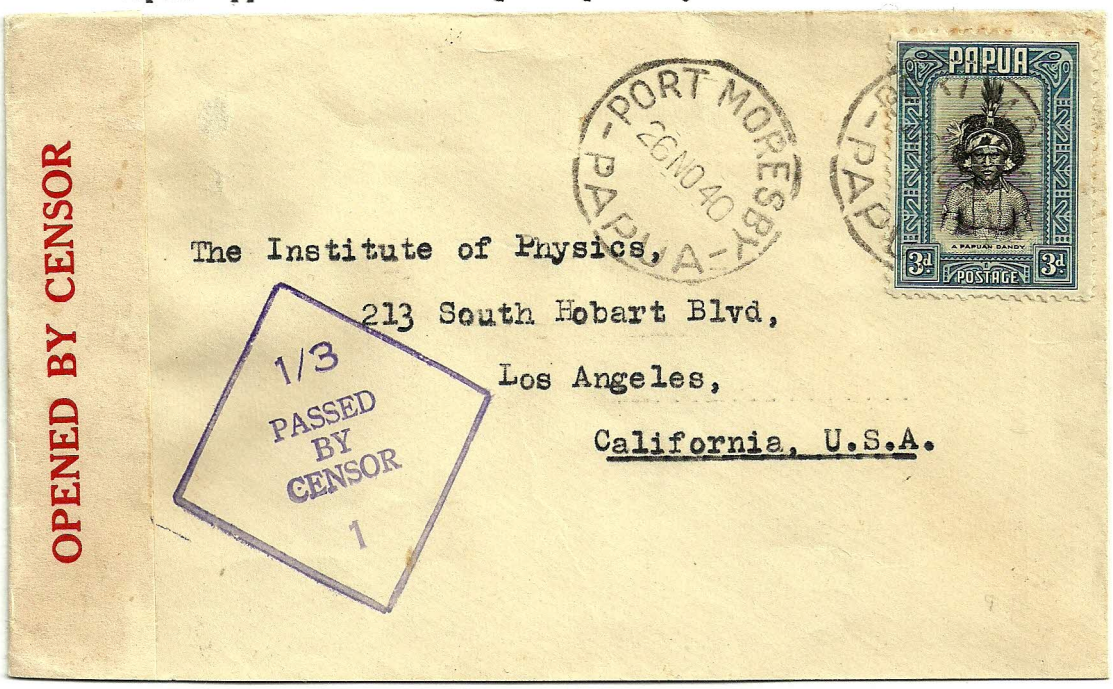
CENSORD MAIL



Commercial letter from Port Moresby dated August 13, 1940, affixed with 2p postage for deliver by sea, destination Lloyds Bank, Berkshire, England.

Note: Mail was inspected because of the second world war. The Japanese Occupation of Western New Guinea on the west coast and the territory of New Guinea on the north forced the suspension of civil administration in Papua. Approved mail was stamped "Opened By Censor" and moved forward.



Personal letter from Port Moresby dated November 26, 1940, affixed with the international postal rate of 3p postage, destination Los Angeles, California.
Note: Due to the Japanese Occupation this letter was inspected and censored.
